

PERSONAL STATEMENT GRUNWALD CLEMENS

I am a lawyer born and raised in Germany. My law studies in Osnabrück covered public economic law as well as business aspects of law. I also did an additional language education in English as a specialisation. Besides I also did a Master in European law (LL.M.) in Lund, Sweden. My master thesis dealt with the Volkswagengesetz and the European freedom of capital (lup.lub.lu.se/luur/download?func=downloadFile&recordId=1554953&fileId=1563498).

Afterwards I did my clerkship in Düsseldorf, Germany. After that I worked for a major Swedish law firm in Berlin and the Düsseldorf bar association.

Since 2011 I work for the Siegen university, Germany as a research assistant in media and data privacy laws. My main focus is on social networking sites on the internet and their accordance with German and European data privacy laws. I also lectured at the "General Online Research" in March 2012 in Mannheim, Germany and co-organised the interdisciplinary workshop "Digital Natives' Traces" in Siegen, Germany (www.wiwi.uni-siegen.de/itsec/forschung/projekte/digitalnatives/dnt_workshop_2012/?lang=de).

I am a member of the interdisciplinary project "Digital Natives' Traces" in Siegen (www.wiwi.uni-siegen.de/bwlmewi/forschung/projekte/digital.html).
